

New Graduates and Students Training Month at Assistive Technology Australia February 2017

AT Australia is running some of its most popular courses just for Students and New Graduates in February 2017. The course content is introductory and at a level suitable for students and new graduates. The courses will be held at our office in Blacktown.

Spaces are limited, so register early!!

Course Name	Date	Duration	Cost
AT for Tremors Presents the latest technology available to assist a person living with tremors	February 1 st	½ day	$125
AT for Memory Loss The workshop explores assistive technology and strategies to promote independence and to enable people to remain safe in their environment.	February 8 th	½ day	$125
Introduction to MAT Evaluation Essential foundation clinical and practical skills workshop for therapists that want to assess and prescribe wheelchairs in their work roles.	February 15 th	1 day	$225
Easing the Pressure With so many different pressure-relieving products on the market, how do you know which one to choose and when to apply it?	February 22 nd	1 day	$225

(All costs inclusive of GST)

Visit <http://at-aust.org/home/training/training> for full course details. The course content for the student courses will be of a more introductory nature but still include similar information covered in the full course.

Assistive Technology Australia is a leading information, advisory, education and training centre for Assistive Technology and the Built Environment, operating across Australia. All trainers are qualified Health Professionals with extensive experience working in Assistive Technology and Access.

Other courses may become available throughout the year and course dates may change. For updates to the calendar and full course details, visit www.at-aust.org or phone (02) 9912 5800.

REGISTERING FOR TRAINING:

Follow the link below to obtain the registration form you need or contact the Training Administrator on (02) 9912 5800 or via email to training@at-aust.org

Training Registration form <http://at-aust.org/assets/TrainingRego.pdf>

Please fax your registration form to (02) 8814 9656 or email to training@at-aust.org