
2021 - 2022 Training Calendar

Nationally accredited training in Assistive Technology

These nationally recognised individual unit or group of units, will allow you to extend your Assistive Technology (AT) knowledge and skills.

These particularly suit AT sales staff, customer service staff, and direct care workers assisting their clients and even allied health professionals needing to understand AT which they are not familiar.

We now offer these units online and provide the same great quality training and outcomes as we do in our face-to-face sessions.

Delivery

Online using Zoom Platform

System requirements: A stable internet connection. Computer with webcam, speaker and microphone

*All training date & time is from 9.30am to 1.30pm Sydney time, subjected to daylight saving

*All units are one half day course unless otherwise indicated

*Some units have more than one course date to choose from
